Orders Relating to the State Emblem of India

I — State Emblem of India — Description and Design

(1) The State Emblem of India is an adaptation from the Sarnath Lion Capital of Asoka which is preserved in the Sarnath Museum. The Lion Capital has four lions mounted back to back on a circular abacus. The frieze of the abacus is adorned with sculptures in high relief of an elephant, a galloping horse, a bull and a lion separated by intervening Dharma Chakras. The abacus rests on a bell-shaped lotus.

The profile of the Lion Capital showing three lions mounted on the abacus with a Dharma Chakra in the centre, a bull on the right and a galloping horse on the left, and outlines of Dharma Chakras on the extreme right and left has been adopted as the State Emblem of India. The bell-shaped lotus has been omitted.

The motto “Satyameva Jayate” — Truth alone triumphs — written in Devanagari script below the profile of the Lion Capital is part of the State Emblem of India. The motto is taken from the Mundaka Upanishad, an ancient scripture.

NOTE: The State Emblem of India has referred to as the State Emblem in the following paragraphs.

(2) For the accurate reproduction of the State Emblem, two standard designs have been approved. Prints of these designs are at APPENDICES I and II. Design I is in a simplified form and is intended for reproduction in small sizes such as for use in stationery, seals and die-printing. For reproduction in bigger sizes, only design II, which is more detailed, should be used.

All reproductions of the State Emblem should strictly conform to Design I or Design II.

Photographic designs of the State Emblem can be obtained from the Manager, Photo Litho Wing, Government of India Press, New Delhi.

Samples of standard dies of the State Emblem can be obtained from the Office of the Chief Controller of Printing and Stationery, New Delhi.

II — Adoption by State Governments

The State Emblem has been adopted by the Governments of Assam, Bihar, Gujarat, Maharashtra, Nagaland, Rajasthan and West Bengal and has been incorporated in the Emblems adopted by the Governments of Andhra Pradesh, Haryana, Kerala, Madhya Pradesh, Mysore, Orissa, Punjab and Tamil Nadu. The Governments and Administrations of all Union Territories other than Himachal Pradesh and Chandigarh use the State Emblem. The Union Territory of Chandigarh has incorporated the State Emblem in the emblem adopted by it.

III — Use in the Official Seals

The State Emblem is the official seal of India. The use of the State Emblem for official seal is restricted to the following: —

- (i) President;
- (ii) Vice-President;
- (iii) Union Ministers;
- (iv) Ministers and other Officers of the Central Government including Diplomatic Missions abroad;
- (v) Governors, Lieutenant Governors, Chief Commissioners and Administrators of Union Territories; and
- (vi) Ministers and Departments and Offices of the State Governments and of Union Territory Governments and Administrations who have adopted the State Emblem.

Offices of Central Government permitted to use distinct emblems of their own may, however, use the same in their seals.

IV — Use on Stationery

(1) The State Emblem when printed or embossed on demi-official stationery used by Ministers and Officers should appear on the top left hand corner. The lettering like "Home Minister" or "Ministry of Home Affairs" should appear on the top right hand corner.

(2) The demi-official stationery used by Ministers should be embossed or printed in blue.

(3) The demi-official stationery used by officers should be embossed or printed in red colour except where an officer is specifically authorised to use such stationery in some other colour. Names of officers should not be printed on such stationery.

(4) The Members of Parliament may have the State Emblem embossed or printed on their stationery. The colour to be used for the purpose in the case of Members of the Lok Sabha is green and that in the case of the Members of the Rajya Sabha is red. Such stationery, when supplied by the Chief Controller of Printing and Stationery, does not contain the names or addresses of the Members. But the Members may, at their discretion get such stationery, with their names and addresses, printed at private presses approved for this purpose by the Government of India in the Ministry of Works, Housing and Supply.

(5) Where the stationery used by the Members of Parliament, contains the State Emblem it should not bear words like "Advocate, Supreme Court/High Court" and "Editor.....Journal", below their names in the letter heads.

V — Design of Official Seal

(1) The designs of the brass seals and rubber stamps consist of the State Emblem enclosed in oval frame of adequate thickness. The name of the Ministry or Office should appear between the inner and outer rims of the frame. The abbreviated forms of names of Ministries/Offices may be inscribed where it is not possible to accommodate the names in full.

(2) Offices/Officers already permitted to use round shaped brass seals may however continue to use them. Round shaped rubber stamps may be used by —

- (i) Indian Missions/Posts abroad;
- (ii) Ministry of External Affairs for special purposes such as on Passports, diplomatic identity cards, visas or entry permits. The round shaped embossing machine consisting of State Emblem is also being used by passport authorities in India and abroad; and
- (iii) Ministries of the Government of India on communications addressed to Indian Missions/Posts abroad.

VI — Display on Vehicles

(1) The State Emblem may be displayed on —

- (i) Vehicles of Rashtrapati Bhavan;
- (ii) Cars of Vice-President;
- (iii) Vehicles of Raj Bhavans;
- (iv) Vehicles of Raj Niwases;
- (v) Cars and other means of transport used by the Heads of India's Diplomatic Missions in the countries of their accreditation; and
- (vi) On the cars and other means of transport used by the Heads of India's Consular Posts in the countries and usages of the countries concerned.

(2) Triangular metal plaques showing the Ashoka Chakra (i.e. Dharma Chakra which is a part of the State Emblem) may be used on the cars of —

Cabinet Ministers of the Union;
Ministers of State of the Union;

Speaker and Deputy Speaker of Lok Sabha;

Deputy Chairman of Rajya Sabha;

Notification

LD/2/N/26/69

The Union Territories (Separation of Judicial and Executive Functions) Act, 1969 which was recently passed by the Parliament and assented to by the President of India on 31-5-1969 is hereby published for general information of the public.

M. S. Borkar, Under Secretary (Law).

Panaji, 22nd July, 1969.

to provide for the separation of judicial and executive functions in Union territories.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twentieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Union Territories (Separation of Judicial and Executive Functions) Act, 1969.

(2) It extends to all Union territories except the Union territory of Chandigarh.

(3) It shall come into force in a Union territory to which it extends on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in respect thereof:

Provided that different dates may be appointed for different areas in a Union territory and any reference to the commencement of this Act in relation to a Union territory or an area therein shall mean the date on which it comes into force in that Union territory or area.

2. Definition.—In sections 3 to 9, "Union territory" means any Union territory other than the Union territory of Chandigarh.

3. Amendments to Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.—For the purpose of separation of judicial and executive functions, the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall, in its application to a Union territory, be amended in the manner and to the extent specified in the Schedule. 5 of 1898.

4. Amendments not to render invalid notifications, etc., before commencement of Act.—The provisions of this Act which amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, so as to alter the manner in which, the authority by which, or the law under or in accordance with which, any powers are exercisable, shall not render invalid any notification, order, commitment, attachment, bye-law, rule or regulation duly made or issued or anything duly done before the commencement of this Act, and any such notification, order, commitment, attachment, bye-law, rule or regulation or thing may be revoked, varied or undone in the like manner, to the like extent and in the like circumstances, as if it had been duly made, issued or done after the commencement of this Act by the competent authority and in accordance with the provisions then applicable to such case. 5 of 1898.

5. Functions exercisable by Judicial and Executive Magistrates.—Where under any law the functions exercisable by a Magistrate relate to matters which involve the appreciation or sifting of evidence or the formulation of any decision which exposes any person to any punishment, or penalty, or detention in custody pending investigation, inquiry or trial or would have the effect of sending him for trial before any court, such functions shall, subject to the provisions of this Act and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by this Act, be exercisable by a Judicial Magistrate; and where such functions relate to matters which are administrative or executive in nature, such as the grant of a licence, the suspension or cancellation of a licence, sanctioning a prosecution, or withdrawing from a prosecution, they shall, subject as aforesaid, be exercisable by an Executive Magistrate.

5 of 1898.

6. Repeal of laws in transferred areas in Himachal Pradesh.

— On the commencement of this Act in the transferred areas in the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh, the Punjab Separation of Judicial and Executive Functions Act, 1964, and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as in force immediately before such commencement in the said areas shall stand repealed except as respects things done or omitted to be done before such repeal under the said Punjab Act or under the provisions of the laws amended by the said Punjab Act and section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, shall apply upon such repeal as if such repeal were a repeal of an enactment by a Central Act; and on such commencement, the said Code as amended by this Act shall extend to, and come into force in, the said areas and the provisions of the laws (other than the said Code) amended by the said Punjab Act shall have effect in the said areas as if such provisions had not been amended by the said Punjab Act.

Punjab Act
25 of 1964.
5 of 1898.

10 of 1897.

Explanation. — In this section, “transferred areas” means the territories added to the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh by sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966, except the territories comprised in the districts of Lahaul and Spiti.

31 of 1966.

7. Saving. — (1) Save as provided in this section, nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect —

(a) the validity, invalidity, effect or consequence of anything done or suffered to be done before the commencement of this Act;

(b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability already acquired, accrued or incurred before such commencement;

(c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred or inflicted in respect of any act before such commencement;

(d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment, and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by this Act.

5 of 1898.

(2) All legal proceedings pending before a Magistrate or Court immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, if such Magistrate or Court ceases to have jurisdiction in respect of such proceedings under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by this Act, stand on such commencement transferred to the Magistrate or Court having jurisdiction under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by this Act and shall be heard and disposed of by such Magistrate or Court and such Magistrate or Court shall have all the powers and jurisdiction in respect thereof as if they had been originally instituted before such Magistrate or in such Court, including the power of the succeeding Magistrate under section 350 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

5 of 1898.

8. Power to remove difficulties. — (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government, in consultation with the High Court having jurisdiction in relation to the Union territory concerned, may, by order, do anything (including the specification of the appropriate Magistrate, whether Judicial or Executive, having jurisdiction under any law) not inconsistent with such provisions for the purpose of removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiration of three years from the commencement of this Act.

Explanation. — In this section, “High Court” shall have the same meaning as in clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

5 of 1898.

(2) Every order made under sub-section (1) shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament.

9. Power of Legislative Assembly of Union territory to amend this Act. — Notwithstanding anything contained in section 21 of the Government of Union Territories Act, 1963; the Legislative Assembly of a Union territory may by law amend this Act in its application to that Union territory.

20 of 1963.
